location?

A What particular plant?

Q The Remington.

A Well, I was with the Remington Arms Company and the Union Metallic Cartridge Company.

Q Where was that?

A That was at Bridgeport, Connecticut and the Remington Arms Company was at Ilion, N. Y., about 12 miles from Utica. They were both owned and controlled by the M. Hartley Company of New York and since then they have been consolidated into the Remington Arms-Union Metallic Cartridge Company.

Q Now, during the time you were employed by the Remington Arms did you start in just where everybody else started in, in the manufacturing department or just where did you start?

A I took a course of a week or so in the factory learning the mechanism and the manufacture of these arms.

Q These arms: what do you mean by that, just shot guns and rifles?

A They made shot guns and rifles at that time; they made no pistols or revolvers and my work was demonstrating the shot gun, although the first year that I was
